Ms. Hodge described the Post-911 Fallen Heroes Memorial Wall that the Downtown Library will be hosting the first two weeks in November. She recognized local organizations and volunteer veterans who will be partnering with the library to market and present this event. Ms. Hodge added that they are very excited to be one of the libraries in California to receive this exhibit and noted the complementary transition leading up to the Veterans Connect Center opening at the Downtown Library.

Ms. Hodge pointed out the new tables recently purchased for the Downtown Library including power tables and new catalog tables.

She alerted the board to the Sept. 30th grand re-opening of the Local History Center from 10-5 at the Downtown Library giving the community the opportunity to see what is contained in those collections. Ms. Hodge added that the History Art Competition awards will occur the same day at 4:00 pm.

Ms. Hodge concluded by noting that attendance at the Mother Goose on the Loose program at the Downtown Library has more than doubled over last year. She observed that participants on Wednesdays frequently go to the Vernon Street Town Square afterwards to enjoy Wee One Wednesdays.
