

Sylvia Besana Community Volunteer Award

City of Roseville

Sylvia Besana was a life-long Roseville resident who exemplified the meaning of volunteerism. An educator, counselor, and avid community leader, Sylvia spent the greater part of her life giving back to the community and making a difference through her continued commitment to service.

The Sylvia Besana Community Volunteer Award is a tribute to her and to her lifetime of community service. This annual award recognizes individuals in the Roseville community who display dedication through consistent commitment to community service, serve as role models by inspiring others to volunteer, and demonstrate leadership, excellence, and integrity through volunteer service.

Sylvia Besana Community Volunteer Award

Do you know someone in the Roseville community who is making a difference through volunteerism? The Sylvia Besana Community Volunteer Award, sponsored by the City of Roseville, is looking to recognize an outstanding volunteer who is making an impact through their commitment to community service.

To be eligible, nominees must live in or volunteer with an organization in the City of Roseville. The award will recognize service completed during the 2018 calendar year. Nomination forms are available online at City of Roseville and at the Human Resources Department, 311 Vernon Street or any Roseville library.

The deadline to submit nomination forms is Friday, March 15, 2019. Completed forms must be returned to:

City of Roseville Human Resources Department
311 Vernon Street
Roseville, CA 95678

You may also email your nomination form to volunteer@roseville.ca.us. The award recipient will be announced in November and recognized at a future City Council Meeting.

Description of Volunteer Activity

Describe the scope of the volunteer's service including their responsibilities, tasks, and leadership positions. Also describe what impact or specific accomplishments the volunteer made to the organization and/or community. Finally, describe the volunteer's overall character and why you feel they are deserving of the Sylvia Besana Community Volunteer Award. An attached Word Document is acceptable, limit to one page.
