Flowers & Gardens at Golden Gate Park

Saturday, March 24

Tour Inclusions:

Hosted Lunch at the Piazza Market Restaurant
Admission to the Conservatory of Flowers
Admission to the Japanese Tea Gardens
All West Transportation and Driver & Escort Gratuities

Begin the trip with a delicious hosted lunch at the Piazza Market Restaurant in San Francisco's "Little Italy." After lunch, pay a visit to the San Francisco Conservatory of Flowers. The Conservatory is an elegant piece of San Francisco's Victorian past and a spectacular living museum of rare and beautiful tropical plants. Then it's off to the Japanese Tea Gardens. The oldest public Japanese garden in the United States, the Gardens span five acres and features native Japanese and Chinese plants. Depart at approximately 8:00 AM and return approximately 6:30 PM. (Menu: Choice of Classic Lasagna, Spaghetti with Meatballs or Pasta Primavera. All entrees include Mixed Green Salad, Dessert, Bread & Butter, and Coffee or Hot Tea.) Registration Deadline: 2/22/12.

#58938 Saturday, March 24, 2012

Departure is 7:45am from the Maidu Community Center Parking Lot Trip Fee: $77(Resident Discount) or $80 (non-residents)

Registration: Trip registrations can be made by credit card, cash or check. Registrations can be made online, in person or by phone. At the Maidu Community Center (916) 774-5950 or Roseville Sports Center (916)774-5990.